Teachers To Get Pay Hike

$200 To $500 Raise Slated

Jefferson High school teachers next year will pocket several hundred additional dollars in wages, and elementary school teachers— if the board approves—will not be left out in the cold.

The high school trustees Monday night approved a new salary schedule which raises the top minimum yearly salary from $3600 to $3800, and the top maximum from $4875 to $5700.

Elementary teachers have asked the board for a new schedule raising the top minimum from $3375 to $3900, and the top maximum from $4875 to $5700.

The teachers in elementary schools throughout the district submitted a revised schedule, approved unanimously by the teachers, to the board, which took the matter under consideration. A meeting to decide the new schedule was set this week, but since all board members were not present, the matter was tabled. A meeting will be held within the next couple of weeks, according to H. Z. Weibel, superintendent of schools.

Minimum Rate

The present minimum salary for elementary teachers with an AB degree and no experience is $2925 a year, with a maximum of $4100 after 14 years. The schedule asked by the teachers calls for a starting minimum of $3500 and a maximum of $4820, with increments of $120 a year, the maximum to be reached in 12 years.

For elementary teachers with an MA degree, the present minimum is $3375, with a maximum of $4875 after 16 years. The minimum asked is $3900, the maximum $5700. In both cases the maximum scale will be reached after 16 years.

The new schedule seems to represent a large increase according to Weibel, but the actual percentage of the total budget to be used for salaries would be less than in the past with the new schedule. Salaries have accounted for about 75 per cent of the budget in the past. Under the new schedule salaries would account for about 65 per cent of the budget.

For high school teachers under the new schedule, which goes in—

Station Operator Held For Superior Court By Sweeney

Stephen Schiattacasse, 45, operator of a gas station at 7400 Mission street in Daly City, Tuesday was bound over to superior court by Judge William J. Sweeney on charges of bookmaking.

Schiattacasse was remanded into the custody of the sheriff's office in Redwood City following his preliminary hearing in police court here. He was represented by Robert J. Dell'Ergo, Redwood City attorney. Assistant District Attorney Ralph Sullivan presented the case for the people.

The service station operator was picked up by local police two weeks ago after two policemen laid a trap by placing a bet, which Schiattacasse allegedly accepted.

According to police, after the arrest Schiattacasse, a resident of San Mateo, freely admitted his bookmaking operations and said he had been taking bets since January. However, at the preliminary hearing he pleaded not guilty.

Westlake Park Purchase Asked

Recreation Comm'n. Requests Playground

A recommendation to the city council that the 1952-53 budget include money for the purchase of a 10-acre park site in Westlake was made by the Recreation Commission at their regular meeting Tuesday evening.

The Commission noted a park is badly needed in Westlake and action to acquire the property should be taken at once.

City Administrator Dan Andersen told The Record today money from last year's budget, added to additional funds for 1952-53, "will probably be enough" for purchase of the site. However, he said there could be no definite answer until the budget is completed—some time in June.

Under an annexation agreement Henry Doelger will sell the site, located between the Aleman extension and Lake Mead boulevard, at a special low price. The agreement was reached three years ago but the city to-date has not had enough funds to make the purchase.

Raise Asked

Other recommendations by the Commission to the council included a raise for Recreation Director

Broadmoor Busses Will Continue For A While, At Least

Commission Plans Study Of New Fares

Broadmoor residents who have been up in the air recently about the transportation problem—whether or not the Public Utilities Commission is going to discontinue the Broadmoor shuttle—can relax for a while.

Checking with the commission, THE RECORD learned today that no action will be taken in the immediate future, although there is still a possibility the service eventually will be discontinued.

During budget sessions the supervisors did consider the Broadmoor line, along with several others, and it was recommended that the line be discontinued in an effort to put the bus system on a paying basis.

However, with the new 15 cent fare due to start June 1, the officials have decided upon a "let's wait and see" attitude. A careful survey of bus operations will be made after the fare increase, and the entire picture will be studied.

Then, according to authorities, it will be decided whether or not to keep the line in operation.

Many taxpayers in San Francisco, it was explained, feel that if the line is not paying for itself, and since it is financed by the citizens, these operations outside the county should be shut down, since people here are not paying taxes towards maintenance of the line.

In regards to the possibility of running a shuttle bus from Daly City to Westlake, which has been under consideration, the commission said there has been little discussion of the new line—and considering the situation and the feelings of the residents of San Francisco, little chance of the line being started.

A few months ago Daly City officials requested that the Broadmoor Village bus line be extended to take in Westlake. Joe Verducci, city councilman and chairman of the transportation committee, is now investigating the transportation situation in Daly City.

PATRICK MURRAY JOINS MAYOR PAUL GREEN'S FAMILY

Mayor Paul Green is back to normal today after a hectic week of waiting, waiting and more waiting.

His wife is feeling pretty fine, too. At 4:20 o'clock this morning, May 29, a 7 pound 12 ounce baby boy joined the Green family. Young Patrick Murray came in to this world at Children's Hospital with a joyful scream.

Pat joins two other boys in the Green family: Jim 8, and Stephen, 2. Slightly outnumbered by these young Irishmen is five-year-old Susan.

THE RECORD RECOMMENDS

After careful study of their qualifications and merit, THE RECORD recommends the following candidates for public office, at Tuesday's primary election:

CONGRESS, Ninth District

AL R. SAGEHORN, county treasurer for the past 17 years with a long standing reputation as an active participant in dozens of worthwhile county public organizations and community projects. Sagehorn is a Republican, but has cross-filed.

CONGRESS, Senate

WILLIAM KNOWLAND, incumbent who has made a name for himself as an authority on international affairs. Knowland is a Republican with an impressive record of service.

STATE SENATE

HARRY L. PARKMAN, resident of Woodside and dean of the state senate. Parkman has ably demonstrated his ability to represent the residents of San Mateo County. He is a Republican who has cross-filed.

STATE ASSEMBLY

PETER J. MARKOVICH, Daly City insurance broker with an impressive record of public service. Markovich is a resident of Broadmoor, active in civic affairs, and past chairman of the Jefferson High School Board of Trustees. Markovich has cross-filed.

COUNTY SUPERVISOR, First District

THOMAS CALLAN, pioneer resident of this area, Colma businessman; member of the board of trustees Jefferson high school; chairman, San Mateo Harbor Board; and leader in civic affairs. Callan appears to be the only candidate who has come out with a positive six point program for county improvement.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS, 3rd & 4th District

WILLIAM W. WERDER and ALVIN S. HATCH, both incumbents, are unopposed. They are voted on, as Callan, by the entire county.

MUNICIPAL JUDGE, Northern District

JUDGE THOMAS BOCCI, Daly City attorney and judge of the First Township justice court. During his two years as judge, Bocci has demonstrated the judicial wisdom which more than qualifies him as municipal judge. He is a native son, civic leader and past chairman of many Red Cross and Community Chest fund raising drives.

SUPERIOR JUDGE

EDMUND SCOTT, incumbent judge and resident of Redwood City. Judge Scott is unopposed, and deserves the popular support of every local resident.

DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COMMITTEE

TONY RICCI, union leader, family man and long time resident of Daly City. Active in local affairs, Ricci will be a fine representative of the popular Democratic feeling if elected to the Central Committee.

Daly City Boys Club Fades Away And Finally Dies Thursday Night

Following is the "funeral oration" delivered this week over the Daly City Boys Club:

"Finis was written to the Daly City Boys Club, inactive almost a year, at a meeting held at Anne Ingersoll's, 437 Crocker street, Thursday evening, May 15.

"The Club had not operated as such since July of 1951, due to lack of community support, and a place to meet. The small group of active supporters, which had dwindled to five, could not longer carry the burden of raising money, conducting the affairs of the club, and directing the activities of the boys, too.

"From the first the interested group had been small, but so long as the club had a place to meet the active members felt they could carry on somehow. When Mr. Lombardi found it necessary to rent the upstairs portion of his auto repair building, where the club had met, the club moved to Castle Hall, in Colma, on a two or three night a week basis.

"There was no place to keep and use the equipment that had slowly and painfully been acquired for the club's use, and lacking these facilities, the boys lost in—

Which Comes First The Chickens Or A City Ordinance?

Council Calls For Bids On Park Utility Bldgs.

A move to rid the city of chickens is a la backyard was called for at the regular meeting of the city council Monday evening.

Mrs. Garvey Pollock, 47 E. Cavour, launched the discussion when she objected to neighbors who had chickens in their back yards. It appears her daughter is allergic to the feathered animals.

Quoting from a city ordinance, Mrs. Pollock said any resident may keep up to 25 animals within 25 feet of his neighbor's home. This includes chickens and a variety of other creatures.

Mrs. Pollock then called upon the council to reconsider the ordinance in order to make this a family community, not a "farm center."

was the right of anyone to keep was the right of anyone to keep chickens and other animals as long as they complied with the law and did not constitute a nuisance. He observed this was the rule in most cities, including San Francisco.

Later this week City Administrator Dan Andersen reported Mrs. Pollock's neighbors had removed the chickens. He added that as far as the council is concerned the ordinance is correct, and there is no reason for amending or changing it.

"The law provides for certain precautions which we believe is adequate in the case of chickens, or any other animals," Andersen said. "Neither I nor the council can see any reason to penalize animal owners, as long as they are not a nuisance."

Other Business

Other, perhaps more pressing business before the council Monday evening included:

1. Calling for a survey to determine if any equipment should be moved out of parks. Mayor Green, (Continued on Page 2)

SMITH'S QUARRY APPEAL IS DENIED BY THE COURT

The District Court of Appeals this week denied H. H. Smith, former mayor of Daly City, a rehearing of his case over the price of the now famous quarry property.

Smith appealed for a rehearing after the court recently upheld the price the county superior court set—approximately $5,000. Smith had asked for close to $200,000 for the 75 ft. wide strip.

The quarry property was condemned by the city two years ago to extend Brunswick street from Wellington street through to Hillside boulevard. Litigation has held up the work for most of that time.

Smith is expected now to petition the state supreme court for another hearing on the matter.

TWO BUDDIES MEET AFTER FIVE YEARS, and in Tokyo, of all places. Pfc. George M. McLeod (right) and Bob Thompson, both of Daly City, pose together before the Japanese Diet building, after being reunited through reading the "Our Servicemen" column in THE RECORD.

Two Daly City Servicemen Reunited In Tokyo Recently After Five Years

When you're 7,000 miles from home—and that's a long, long way, friend—nothing builds up the morale faster than a visit with a buddy from the home town.

A couple of boys in the service, half way around the world from their homes in Daly City, had one of these unexpected meetings recently, and were able to talk over old times and old friends for a few hours before going their separate ways.

The staff of THE RECORD was glad to have had a part in reuniting these servicemen, if only for a short time, but one of the boys can tell the story better than we could.

Following is the letter from Pfc. George M. McLeod, who is serving in Tokyo.

Dear Sir: For seven months now I have been receiving my weekly issue of your swell paper. Reading about my friends and neighbors helps me feel closer to home.

A little over a month ago I met a grammar school buddy, Bob Thompson, of 246 Los Banos avenue, Daly City, here in Tokyo. We hadn't seen each other for almost five years. He just happened to notice my name in your paper's column, "Our Servicemen," found out the phone number of my unit, contacted me, and we got together to talk over old times.

Commission Set-Up To Be Introduced

Ordinances setting up the new planning and police commission will be introduced at the regular city council meeting June 9, City Administrator Dan Andersen announced today.

The council is still working out plans for the fire and library commissions, and these ordinances will come up later in June, Andersen declared.

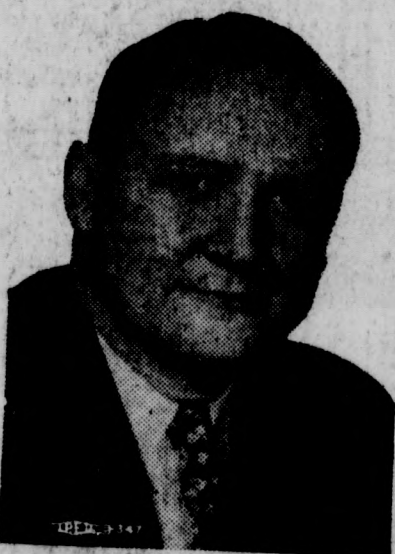

Contrary to some reports, no one has been selected for any of the commissions. Andersen said the choice still has to be made by the city council.

There will be five men on the planning commission, three on the police, fire and library.

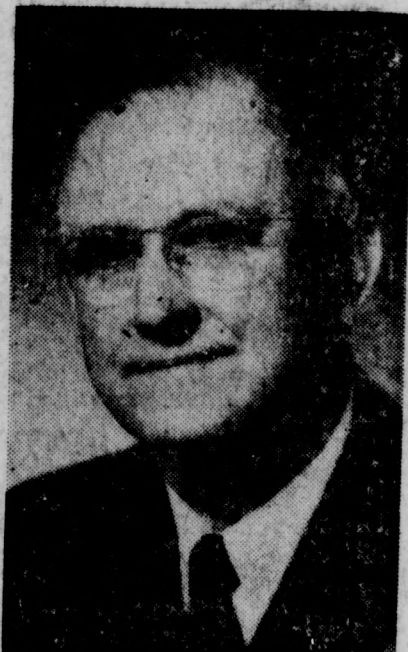

The bodies will act in an advisory capacity to the city administrator and council, except for the planning commission which will have power to act in certain cases.

Parked Car Hit Sunday

Frank Hartje, 19, of 439 Evergreen avenue, hit a car parked on Bismark street Sunday, according to police. The parked car belonged to Fred Larson, 1849 15th street, San Francisco. Minor property damage was noted.

Teachers Get Pay Hike

to effect July 1, the minimum for an AB degree is $3400, the maximum $3600; for a general secondary, $3600 and $6200; for an MA degree, $3800 and $6400. Under the new schedule the increment is $200 a year, with 16 steps in the schedule.

In the elementary district all teachers presently employed were rehired by the board May 6 at a special meeting.

At last Thursday's meeting a report on expected state aid for 1952-53 was read and it was estimated the total aid based on average daily attendance will be $434,181.99. Last year's apportionment on ADA was approximately $333,000.

According to Superintendent Weibel the system is looking for an increase in student population next year amounting to nearly 1,000 students.

The figures based on excess growth during the year, and kindergarten entrants last year, shows the district attendance will probably increase from 3,212 to 4,113.

At Monday night's meeting of the high school board the trustees hired Louis Martin, a graduate of San Francisco State college, as a new instructor. He will teach driver education, freshman social studies, will assist in coaching the freshmen and sophomore football teams and will coach varsity baseball.

whose two-year-old son Stephen was recently injured in one of the parks, said much of the equipment is dangerous. He said, too, the city has been faced with too many claims of parents whose children were injured at play. Councilman Joseph Verducci said he would use precaution about removing any equipment from the parks, but agreed some of it could be put in safer areas. The council agreed to make the survey, with the aid of the Recreation Commission, later this week.

2. Called for bids for four utility buildings at Marchbanks, Edgewood, Lincoln and Frankfort parks. The bids will be opened at a special meeting June 16, and it is hoped they will be completed in time for most of the summer program.

3. The contract for an underground pressure reducing valve in Westlake was awarded to the Associated Engineers at a price of $4,500. When completed, this valve will allow Daly City to furnish Westlake with water. Due to the high pressure of local water, Westlake has been forced to buy its water from San Francisco.

4. An eligibility list of men for the police force was approved by the city council. Heading the list, which was made up in order of the scores applicants made in a test, was James Sunderland, son of former Chief-of-Police W. W. Sunderland.

5. Application of Mrs. Matilda Stanford, 92 Hillcrest drive, for a permit to house up to five old persons in her home was discussed. There was no written or oral objection, but the council questioned whether a home built for one family was large enough for five ambulatory patients. The council agreed to look over the home, and give Mrs. Stanford a decision at the next meeting, June 9.

Colma School

6. A petition by the Jefferson elementary school district for the city to annex the Colma school was filed. A resolution calling for annexation was approved by the council. Mayor Green said the city has received many requests to put in sidewalks leading to the school, but will not be able to do anything until the school property is annexed to Daly City. Final action on the sidewalks will not be realized until subdividers develop the adjoining property and can be assessed for the sidewalks, the mayor added.

7. The city approved a request to the state of $1,150 for repair of flood damaged School and Mission streets. If approved, this sum will be matched by the city. A member of the audience asked if any thought had been given to the repair of Frankfort street. City Engineer Smith explained the state would not pay for any new work, but only to put street and sewers back in original condition. He implied new work was necessary on Frankfort street, and that the whole problem is now "under consideration, but nothing economically feasible has been worked out."

Elman Rose who now receives $325 a month full time during the summer, and a proportionate amount as a part time director the rest of the year. The increase is to be based on the scale for other directors in cities throughout the county.

Turning to the parks, the Commission was in agreement with the city council that much of the new equipment has proved dangerous. It was agreed to survey the situation with the council and make the necessary changes, such as more tanbark around slides and a protective railing in front of swings.

Disappointed
Ed Cavagnaro, commission member, expressed disappointment about the conditions of the Marchbanks park baseball diamond.

"The field roller has weeds growing over it, and it doesn't look to me as if it has been used in months," Cavagnaro said.

Rose explained the city gardeners have not had the time to roll the field properly. James Hines, commission member, observed the mayor "said when baseball season rolled around we would have the diamond in good shape."

Andersen is to be contacted by Rose in an effort to improve the field.

Buildings
A report was made on the utility buildings for the various parks and it was estimated the lavatory facilities will be up in time for at least one-half the summer program. (The city council called for bids on buildings at Marchbanks, Edgewood, and Frankfort parks Monday evening. The bids will be opened June 16.)

Rose made a report on work underway at the various parks and, while the commission was not entirely satisfied, they commended Andersen for the work he has done to speed up the program.

As the Commission was a year old Tuesday, an election of new officers was held. George Pingry was reelected chairman; Mrs. Ann Eason was chosen as vice-chairman and Mr. Gordon T. Carlson, appointed by the council only Monday evening to take the place of Edward J. Dennis, was named secretary.

Allowing one car space between automobiles on the highway for every ten miles of speed will allow ample time to maneuver should an emergency occur, reports the National Automobile Club. At twenty miles an hour, there should be two car lengths between the driver's car and the one immediately ahead; at fifty miles this space should equal five car lengths, to provide this safety cushion.

Important Thing Is To Vote June 3

THE RECORD, in an effort to inform and assist the public, has printed its recommendations of the men deserving your vote in the primary election, June 3.

We arrived at this list only after careful study and consideration of the various candidates' qualifications. Having met and talked with these men, having delved into their past record, we do not hesitate to recommend them to you as your best bet for public servants.

Certainly there will be many who disagree with our selection. We would not have it otherwise. As a responsible newspaper we respect the opinions, intelligence and judgment of our readers. We are only a guide—we hope a useful one; but in the final analysis the choice is up to the man or woman who actuates the responsibility of voting.

So, this is just to give all and sundry a reminder that a statewide election comes on Tuesday, June 3. If you're one of those individuals who takes seriously the privilege of being an American, you are undoubtedly well aware of the date and you'll cast your ballot after giving the candidates and issues some careful thought.

If you're one of the "50 percenters" (who register but often don't bother to vote) we say: It's up to you. If you're only half concerned about your voting rights, we're not going to carry the other half on our shoulders. And as for the zero percenters—that strange breed that never even registers—we won't say anything. The paper would be scorched if we did.

Once again, June 3, is election day.

Recreation Program Still Lags

While cooperation between the Recreation Commission and the city council is increasing week by week, there is still a narrow gap between the two bodies.

This was never more evident than at a regular meeting of the Commission Tuesday evening. Three months ago the Commission recommended the first utility buildings to go up should be built at Edgewood and Frankfort parks. They reasoned these parks now have no facilities, and are badly in need of them for the summer program.

The council, however, has given the utility building at Marchbanks park priority. This, despite the fact Marchbanks already has some facilities for rest rooms.

(At their regular meeting Monday evening the council called for bids for buildings in all the parks, and if favorable it is possible the utility structures will go up practically at the same time.)

Regardless of the outcome of this rather academic question, the principle is still there—does or does not the council pay any attention to the recommendation of the Recreation Commission, and if not why is the Commission functioning?

We are confident in the belief the Commission is an important part of Daly City government. What is more, we are sure this is the sentiment of the majority of councilmen.

Only one thing is lacking—the proper liaison between these two groups. Which leads us to believe the council should have at least one member attend every meeting of the Recreation Commission. As the Commission meets only one night a month this would cause no hardship on the council, and would do much to create better feeling and understanding between the two groups.

Meanwhile, while discussing recreation, we note Mayor Paul Green suggested Monday night the council move some playground equipment out of the parks. He justifiably declared certain equipment has resulted in numerous accidents, and in its present location is dangerous.

Mayor Green suggested he and the council make the survey. No mention was made of the Recreation Commission.

At this point Councilman Verducci was quick to say the Commission should be first consulted, and that he was hesitant to move any equipment out of parks already short of necessary apparatus. He agreed with the mayor some of the playthings should be moved—but only to safer parts of the parks, not out of those parks.

Congratulations, Councilman Verducci. Here is one man at least who promises, as a junior councilman, to be a real champion of the recreation program.

And just one more thing: the Commission Tuesday evening recommended the city council put aside funds from the 1952-53 budget for purchase of the 10 acre park in Westlake. A-men... we hope this is done immediately so the residents of Westlake can realize a park before their children are too old to recognize such an "animal."

Down With Gnus And Chickens

Whether you know it or not your neighbor can raise up to 25 cows, pigs or chickens in his back yard, as long as the animals are 25 feet from your property.

This was brought home to the city council Monday evening by a woman who wants to know why. She quoted the law, from an old ordinance.

While chickens and cows and pigs are just fine within reason and fence, we hesitate to applaud a law which can virtually turn a community into one big farm.

We suggest the council amend this ordinance to signify what type, and how many animals a resident can farm out in his back yard.

Not that we are taking sides in this chickens "to be, or not to be" tussle; but under the present law your neighbor can board a gnu out back—and you have to draw the line someplace, even on gnus and chickens.

Boys Club Goes Way Of Too Many Groups

At a mournful gathering of six interested citizens this week, the Daly City Boys Club was officially killed and buried.

It was a mercy killing as the club has been dying for the past year. Lack of interest on the part of parents slowly strangled the activities of the organization.

The club, dedicated to the recreation needs of young boys, was a noble experiment. It began several years ago, died once, and was revived two years later with the help of THE RECORD and a group of civic minded residents.

Boys (and some girls) were receptive to the idea of a club of their own. They gave it all the moral support it needed, but this wasn't enough—money and interested parents were of more importance. Neither was forthcoming.

This is indeed a sad commentary on the attitude of the community. A city no longer interested in its youth is not one worthy of anything but a place on the slag pile of indifference.

We respectfully bury the Boys Club and decry those thousands of parents who made one of the best of all failures possible. You are to be congratulated for the worst kind of faults in any community—indifference to the fate of youth.

Some Comments On The Caucus Meeting

The caucus meeting has become an accepted fact in Daly City government, and it is with a great deal of pleasure we see the San Francisco Chronicle in hearty agreement with THE RECORD that such meetings are an evil.

In a series of penetrating, thoughtful articles, THE Chronicle is exploring the extent and results of caucus, or closed meetings. We recommend every voter and city official read these articles.

During the past years THE RECORD has deplored the blatant manner in which the city council transacts all really important business behind closed doors. The regular public meetings have become little more than a formality to apply the legal rubber stamp to decisions made in caucus.

The council justifies the caucus by noting many technical matters have to be thrashed out in order to acquaint the councilmen with the facts before going into the public chambers. Right or wrong, the council believes the caucus is of real benefit, both as a time saver and as a means of briefing the councilmen.

There is unquestionably some truth to this justification.

As the city council is on a part time basis, councilmen do not have the time to keep abreast of city matters. There would be little but confusion if they went into a public meeting and knew nothing about the matters on the agenda.

However, THE RECORD challenges the right of the council to make important decisions, to arrive at a harmonious "yes" vote behind closed doors. In matters, other than purely technical, the public has the right to hear the pros and cons discussed. Too often this discussion is heard only by the councilmen and the walls of the caucus room.

The end results is city government piloted by the few—with the public on the outside.

We grant some type of council huddle is necessary before the regular meeting. On the other hand we question whether the council has the right to arrive at decisions without a public hearing.

If the council finds caucus meetings necessary, let those meetings be open to the public and the press. There is no need to hide anything, although a caucus meeting works an injustice on a councilman by inferring there is such a need.

We would be interested in hearing the councilmen's views on this subject—and will print any replay they may care to make in next week's RECORD.

But in the meantime let us reiterate, the final answer to the practice of closed meetings rests with the public. In the words of the Chronicle: "In an effort to keep public servants doing business in the public view, success has been generally proportionate to the amount of interest shown by the public."

Voter Praises Judge Bocci's Effort To Carry On A Clean Election Campaign

To the Editor:

Residents of this area will face an important decision next Tuesday when they go to the polls to choose a Judge for this district.

In a campaign which has been notable for bombastic promises, charges and counter-charges, I have been very happy to see that at least Judge Bocci has carried on a clean campaign. The fact that Judge Bocci has refused to permit himself to be a party to such mud-slinging is sufficient proof of his high type of integrity so necessary for this office.

I have known Judge Bocci for many years, and on the basis of his fine record, I have no hesitancy in recommending him to the voters. During the past two years, as Judge, he has shown wisdom and understanding in his decisions. He has been fair and impartial with all.

As a practicing attorney, Judge Bocci has the respect of the community through his fair dealings and willingness to help his fellow man. I am echoing the sentiments that I hear most commonly on the streets with respect to Judge Bocci, and can only urge that those who have never met him inquire as to his integrity and ability. I am sure all residents interested in better government will go to the polls Tuesday and cast a vote for our friend, Judge Bocci.

School Board Trustee Requests Residents To Attend Board Meetings

Dear Citizens:

I wish to thank you for the interest shown by so many on behalf of the educational system in the Jefferson School District at our recent election.

The result of the polling left no doubt of what the people of the district want for their children and the community.

It now becomes the duty and responsibility of school officials to exercise the greatest care in planning and directing the affairs of the district in order to obtain maximum value for every dollar spent.

Already, some have a feeling of "new richness," and this is sad, as we really aren't rich, we aren't just keeping up with any "Jones" districts—but we are so much better off than we were that we are deeply grateful and everything will be done to make it really count.

I would like to make my plea once again, that more interested people attend the board meetings. The business of over half a million dollar organization is conducted at these meetings, and I consider the intelligent interest of the citizens vital. It is your children, your school and your money.

In short, it is your party, so please come. And thanks again for being so nice.

Sincerely,
Helen M. Cheatham

Bosbery Calls Upon Voters To Elect Judge Becker At Tuesday's Election

Fellow Electors and Neighbors:

Within the near future, we are approaching a time when each and everyone of us needs give careful thought towards the election of men and women who will govern our future and that of our children in the persons of our President, Vice President, Members of the House of Congress, Representatives and many State Officers.

With a world full of strife, uncertainty, distrust, lack of understanding and good fellowship, it is of vital importance that we pause and deliberate before making any rash decisions.

As in our national election, so in our local.

At this time, I wish to speak on behalf of a fellow resident of Daly City, Charles Becker, who is running for the office of Judge in the newly created municipal court for the northern district of San Mateo county. I speak, not as a member of the Board of Directors of Westlake Improvement Association, but as a resident of Daly City who has known Charles Becker intimately for the past few years. It is a well-known fact that he has taken an active part in all civic affairs pertaining to Daly City; and has given much time and thought to the future education of our children as experienced by the amount of time and effort he has given while serving in the position of Chairman of the Education Committee of the Westlake Association.

Mr. Becker has also worked on the development of a road adjoining Westlake and Broadmoor which will materially benefit the residents of both localities. He has given time and effort unselfishly to head the Community Chest, Red Cross and Cancer Fund Drives for this locality and by his action has proved his deep and sincere interest in the welfare of our Community, Daly City.

I personally know Charles Becker to be honest, fair, capable and experienced, and in my opinion he is the right man to represent our district as the first judge of our Municipal Court.

Long-Time Resident Backs Becker For Municipal Judge

The Editor,

The Record

Dear Sir:

As you know, I am one of the old time Daly City residents, and I have always worked hard and expressed my opinions on what I believed was right for Daly City.

With the elections only a few days off, I felt that it would only be right for me to write to you, so the people of Daly City would be able to know what I know about Judge Charlie Becker.

I have known Judge Becker and his whole family including his mother and father and three brothers for about 34 years. In fact, we were neighbors on Scott street in San Francisco when Judge Becker was only two years old.

I watched him grow and begin school and then I watched him become a young man. Just before he graduated from high school, his father died and he went to work at the Emporium and worked his way through the university and law school. I watched him as a young man, and then as a lawyer, and then as a civic leader when he moved to Daly City.

I know how important our courts are to us and how careful we should be in electing the right judge for this new municipal court.

I know Judge Charlie Becker and that he is an honest and fair man, and will be a credit to our city as the first judge of this new municipal court.

Knowing Judge Becker as long as as well as I do, I feel that I should tell all of my friends, and the people of Daly City, about this fine man.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Berdella Dormoy

Poem Written In Praise Of Demo Candidate

May 26, 1952

The Record

Sir:

The following poem is submitted for your consideration—after seeing and hearing the gentlemen contesting each other—

Assembly Prediction.
Joe should have "returned" in thirty-nine,
But he was beaten.
Now he's stepping back in line,
For history is repeatin'.

Pete's a dandy on the course,
Par's a cinch for him.
Voters have little remorse,
His chances are so dim.

Jenkins is the boy in front
With the Demos, packs a punch.
For labor, teachers, local men all
In fifty-three, he'll pack the ball.
Sincerely,
P. La Ureate

M. Pauline Brown Explains Why She Objects To Non-Partisan Organizations

Dear Editor:

In your paper last week there appeared an article in which I was referred to as a "non-partisan." As I am not an non-partisan, and have never been one, I would like to clear up any such misapprehension.

First of all, I heartily endorse Senator Knowland's re-election, and I am doing all I can to help him. I am convinced that failure to return William Knowland to the U. S. Senate would result in a great state and national loss, because the Senator ranks at the top of our finest and most capable statesmen in Washington, D. C., today.

The pressures brought about by present day politics have led to a bewildering system of cross-filing, with the result that many of our candidates have acquired supporters from all sorts of political groups. These supporters soon form themselves into non-partisan clubs for the sole purpose of electing a candidate without regard to his party affiliations.

It just happens that I think the most irresponsible people in our political life today are the non-partisans who profess no political faith quite unlike a coalition of sincere citizens of various political beliefs whose action is very differently motivated.

That is why I object to being called a member of a non-partisan group, even by implication. I am a Republican and have always been a Republican in state and national politics.

Sincerely yours,
Margaret Pauline Brown

Deuteronomy 8: 6-14, which begins...

"Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him.

"For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills..."

And Deuteronomy 8: 17-20, which ends...

"And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the Lord thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you this day that ye shall surely perish. Presbyterian 'Loyalty Series' Continues

A "Brides' Month" service this Sunday, June 1, continues the Broadmoor Community Presbyterian church's "Loyalty series" of six special services running through June 15.

Fourth in the series, the Brides' Month service will be high-lighted by the presentation of a bouquet to the youngest bride present, and special floral decoration and music.

The Rev. John A. Glasse's sermon will be based on a questionaire which he sent to a number of older and younger married couples in the congregation. Their replies to certain questions will form the basis for his message.

For the remaining two services in the series, the first, slated for Sunday, June 8, will be a Recognition day, honoring the children and young people of the church for their advancement.

The second and last will be a Fathers' Day service, at which "tangible tokens of our esteem for all fathers will be given the oldest and the youngest father present," says the Rev. Glasse.

At the service, Henry F. Weibel will speak on, "What a Dad Expects of a Lad," and Edward Dennis, Jr., will talk on, "What a Lad Expects of a Dad."

Mr. William J. Conboy

Oakland, California

Dear Bill:

Some time ago at a meeting of the San Mateo County Labor League for Political Education, one of our delegates relayed some misinformation relative to alleged anti-labor rulings made by Candidate Bocci. This action was probably somewhat instrumental in resulting in the endorsement of his opponent, Mr. Becker.

Soon after this meeting the error was discovered by our delegate, who thereupon made every possible effort, with the active assistance of officers of this Union, to affect a reconsideration and reversal of this endorsement. These men failed after several diligent efforts.

Needless to say, we are extremely embarrassed by this unfortunate mistake, since we wholeheartedly believe in the fairness and honesty of Mr. Bocci and will give him our unqualified support for a smashing success in the coming election.

Catholic Daughter State Convention Held In Riverside

Local Member Tells Of Thrilling Trip

By Mrs. Arthur Heyden

With the 15th biennial state convention of the Catholic Daughters of America—held in the historic Mission Inn in Riverside and dedicated to unity and charity—now past, with Court Mystical Rose acting as hostess, delegates and members of courts throughout the state will be giving reports to home courts and review highlights of the convention.

As seen through my eyes minus the meetings, I will begin with 35 women boarding the Southern Pacific Daylight in San Francisco to enjoy a day's travel viewing historical landmarks as called out over the loudspeaker, beautiful panoramas of the Pacific Ocean and beaches while enjoying the sheer luxury of the train, disembarking in Los Angeles to continue in a chartered bus to Riverside, our destination.

On arriving at the Mission Inn to warm summer breezes in a setting taken out of the Arabian Nights, we registered and settled for the night in a spacious bedroom suite overlooking garden courts and pools, with the varied songs of the mocking bird lulling us to sleep.

Thursday morning we met with other members and attended Mass in a body at the St. Francis de Sales church, with the Rev. Thomas J. Bowe, state chaplain, as celebrant, with the convention opening at 10:30 a.m. in the imposing Galleria room, with Mrs. Kathryn A. Maloney, state regent, presiding.

Thursday evening delegates and members were treated to a musical by the hostess court in the spacious Cloister Music room, representing the old baronial or knighthood hall of a Spanish castle, after which followed a reception honoring state officers on a beautifully lighted terrace at the Inn's swimming pool, where the state regent and her husband were surprised with a five-tiered wedding cake in honor of her 23rd anniversary by the inn. Spanish troubadours entertained during the reception.

After session Friday members were entertained by Court Our Lady of Peace from San Bernardino. Saturday a noon luncheon for delegates was held in the famous Alrio or Fliers Court. Other members were free to lunch on the swimming pool terrace or the beautiful Spanish patio, surrounded with orange trees, palms and roses, with the tinkling of running water from lush tropical fountains, with the famous authors' row with its buttresses and towers with niches making an unusual skyline. Later we visited and improvised our own musical in the famous Carrie Jacobs Bond room where she wrote "The End of a Perfect Day."

Highlight of the evening was the banquet in the inn's main dining room with an address given later in the music room by His Excellency, the Most Reverend Charles F. Buddy, D.D., Bishop of San Diego, who also was the celebrant at the 8 a.m. Mass Sunday, where more than 600 Catholic Daughters of America received Holy Communion in a body.

The then returned to the inn for a banquet breakfast, with Rev. Thomas J. Bowe, state chaplain, as guest speaker. After the breakfast congratulations and goodbyes were extended to friends and the hostess court, and as my grand regent, Mrs. Richard J. Ennis, and I winged our way home in a four-engine United Airliner plane, the past five pleasant days were like a delightful dream out of some fairy tale long to be remembered.

Hillside PTA Is More Than Active At End Of Year

The Hillside PTA hot dog sale was held May 28 at the New Colma school, with Mrs. Chester Mattison, chairman, and her committee selling hot dogs to the students.

The executive board will meet June 9 at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. A. J. Nagy, president, 299 Wilshire. This will be the last meeting until next fall.

VFW Auxiliary Initiates Three New Members Into Group Tuesday Night

Three new members were initiated Tuesday evening at a meeting of VFW Auxiliary No. 9921, held at the Broadmoor Community Center.

Those initiated were LaNita Dunn, Gertrude Nelson and Helen Reich—all of Broadmoor Village. After the rites a social was held in honor of the three new members and prospective members who were present. The other guests included Ruth Tobin, Ordelia Har-naha, Agnes Sirrianni, Beulah Smotherman and Irene North, a visitor from New York.

After the initiation and business meeting the members played court whist. First prize was won by Lorraine Monks. Low score was won by Joan Cuykendal, and the complimentary prize went to Ruth Casteel. The Auxiliary extended thanks to the public for supporting the VFW Buddy Poppy drive, which in part makes the visits to veteran hospitals possible. Members of the group who donated their time to sell poppies also were thanked.

Red Cross Workers Are Feted Thursday By Fund Dept.

Volunteers Thanked For Generous Labor

Approximately 200 Red Cross fund volunteers did their best to find shady spots in the Burlingame Chapter House garden Thursday afternoon when the fund department was host to its 1952 campaign workers. Elizabeth Mack, vice chairman of the chapter, as mistress of ceremonies, thanked the volunteers for their efforts and made special mention of the Hillsborough Garden Club and Mrs. Henry North, for converting the chapter house backyard area from a mass of weeds to a garden.

She introduced Mrs. Henry Mulryan, chairman of the Glendale Chapter and member of the Pacific Area Advisory Council, who was guest of honor. Miss Mack paid special tribute to Mrs. Harry Durand, fund chairman of the chapter, for her outstanding accomplishments in directing the department for the past several years.

Mrs. Barney Bristow, women's residential chairman, in charge of Thursday's affair, was introduced. Before she presented Award of Merit cards to chairmen of the 22 communities and their workers, she expressed appreciation of the fund department to all who had given so generously of their time and effort to make the recent drive a success.

Edwin Rounds, regional director of the American National Red Cross, guest speaker, used his theme the translation of Red Cross dollars into human value.

Rounds presented a certificate of honor for "distinguished service in the fund drive" to the chapter and a citation for "outstanding service, loyalty and devotion" to Mrs. Harry Durand, fund chairman. Miss Mack accepted both scrolls, for the chapter and for Mrs. Durand, who is in Oregon.

The Millbrae Canteen unit served refreshments from attractive tables arranged by Mrs. Walker Kamm. Unit chairman Mrs. George Kelly was assisted by Mesdames Thomas Yates, Francis J. Hoffman, G. C. Hellesoe, Charles Sachs, E. B. Hammond, G. Colburn and E. Harrington.

Woodrow PTA Holds Last Meeting For The Summer

The Woodrow Wilson PTA held its first meeting under the leadership of the new president, Mrs. B. Cunningham. This meeting is the last meeting to be held in this school term. The next meeting will be held in September.

The topic of the day spotlighted discipline, magazines, and our PTA emblem. Mr. H. Z. Weibel, superintendent of Jefferson elementary schools spoke on problems of discipline. His talk held the interest of more than 50 members that attended the meeting the afternoon of May 20.

The definition of the PTA emblem was given by Mrs. Joyce, emblem chairman. Mrs. R. Williams introduced the PTA magazine, and made it clear to the members how they could be ordered and what kind of news items the magazines contained.

A report on the state convention was given by Mrs. M. Plansky and Mrs. R. Williams, explaining the points of interest and the necessity of the state convention. This proved to be of great interest to all attending the meeting.

Last but not least, Mrs. M. Herzer, of the fourth grade class, put on a program of the Musical Flute Band. The children really showed their talents and enthusiasm through the teachings of Mrs. Herzer. Refreshments were served by our new hospitality chairman and her committee after the meeting.

The W. W. P. T. A. holds a hot dog sale twice monthly for the children. Notices are sent home with the children, notifying them of the price and day these sales are to be held.

Preparation of the promotion parties for all the children in the school are now being made. These parties are given at the close of each year.

Red Cross Whist Was Big Success In Colma

The American Red Cross Colma district fund whist, held in Colma Community center hall May 23 was termed by all a great success. The amount collected will be reported later, it was announced, but all were pleased at the result.

Officials said much of the success of the whist was due to the work done by Mr. and Mrs. Attilio Conserva, who were in charge of the event.

Miss Palen's sister, Jean Palen, was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a pastel gown of nylon lace, with small hat to match, as did the bridesmaids, Dolores Taylor and Joan Lande. Pamela Palen, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Palen, was flower girl, and wore a white gown of the same style and material as the bridesmaids. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Best man was Robert Watts, brother of the groom. Ushers were Donald Palen, brother of the bride, and Charles Metzler.

Mrs. Palen chose a royal blue dress of lace and net, with a small white lace hat with veil, and white accessories. She carried a corsage of cybidium orchids. The groom, who resides in Iowa, was unable to attend the wedding.

After the ceremony the bridal party had pictures taken at the Dore Studios. Dinner was served for family and friends at the Parkwood Restaurant, and a reception was held from 8-12 p.m. at Guadalupe Hall, with an orchestra playing for the dancers.

The justweds left on a wedding trip to Yosemite and Carmel, and will reside in San Francisco.

The bride attended St. Paul's high school, and graduated with the class of 1951. She completed a course in running calculating machines at Burroughs, then took a position with Eastman Kodak Co.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Watts, of Rolf, Ia., attended schools in Iowa, served in the Navy, and is now employed in San Francisco.

Repairs Scheduled On Swim Pool Roof

Bids for the repair of the swimming pool roof, for increasing the heating and ventilation of the pool, and to convert the boilers from oil burners to automatic gas will be opened by the board of trustees of Jefferson Union high school on June 9.

Advertisements for the bids are now appearing in The Record.

The work was made necessary by the rotting of roof boards. This, apparently is due to warm, moist air which was not being removed quickly enough.

Mario Ciampi, the school's architect, thinks he has corrected the situation by calling for the installation of forced ventilation. This, in turn, means more heat must be provided for the room.

The board decided to convert the boilers to automatic gas as an economy measure.

It is expected the work will be completed some time in August so the pool can be opened with the beginning of the new fall term.

Sartomen Win Again; Will Meet Vince & Fred's

Sarto AC continued their winning ways Sunday by dropping Pomona Tile 10-6 in a game played at Marchbanks field. That makes it eight wins for the Sartomen out of their last ten starts.

Heine Schuback led the local's hitting record for the game with a two-run triple in the eighth frame. Altogether, the Sarto clan garnered 16 hits. Running Schuback a close second were Bob Pfender and Ben Parodi, each with three to their credit, and Len Castle, John Alcese and Bob Norry each collected two.

On the mound, Don Deluzzio opened the game and allowed three hits and no runs in his three inning stint. Next to take over was Tito Sarto, who granted nothing in his turn on the mound.

Next pitcher up was Bill Rainey, who undoubtedly had his worst day of the season. Rainey gave up six runs, six hits, and five walks and eventually called for help.

Help came from John Alcese, who took over in the last inning, threw two pitches and ended the contest. Hall, the Pomona clubs third sacker, lined to Norry, who doubled Carrol at second to polish off the game.

The Sartomen walked off the field feeling generally pleased, but particularly happy about the five stolen bases they totted up.

Parodi and Pfender did a double larceny apiece and Len Costa rounded out the five.

This Sunday, June 1, the Sarto club clashes at Marchbanks field with another local outfit, the Vince and Fred nine.

Joe Verducci "Recruits" Team To Aid Boy Scouts

Councilman Joseph Verducci, who is heading the annual Boy Scout finance campaign this year in the Daly City-Colma area, reports that his team of volunteers is shaping up with the nucleus of an active committee and nine campaign workers just recruited.

Verducci expects a lot more local individuals who are interested in Scouting, to help put over the 1952 campaign, set for June 10 to 12.

The short-term effort is being held to augment the present budget of the San Francisco Scout Council to permit continued service to almost three hundred boys and leaders in the Daly City-Colma area who are now in Scouting, and extension of its program to all these boys in the area who are eager to join.

With the additional funds which the group hopes to raise, the Council will be in a position to seek the support of more churches, fraternal and service organizations, PTA and other groups to sponsor additional Cub Packs, Scout Troops and Explorer Units in the district so that Scouting can be made available to more boys.

Verducci's committee consists of Fred N. Kruse, 78 Lake Forest drive; Pete Worth, 843 South Mayfair avenue; and Theodore Hopman, 34 Garden Lane.

Local residents recruited so far to serve in the campaign are: Bernard Tambor, 18 Cliffside drive; E. W. Carlson, 80 Lynnewood drive; Francis A. Gates, 27 Lake Vista avenue; Harry Bosberry, 126 Westlawn avenue; Frank Lombardi, 140 School street; Walter Reclor, 331 Woodrow street; Joe Lewkowitz, 501 Vista Grande; Jack Valliant, 246 Westbrook; and Stella Bianco, 20 Forest Grove drive.

Teen-Aged Auto Thieves Sent To Juvenile Home

Two fifteen-year-old youths are in Hillcrest, county juvenile home, today after leading police on a 90-mile-an-hour chase through Daly City, South San Francisco and San Francisco.

The wild ride ended when the youth's stolen car sideswiped a bakery truck and crashed head-on into a brand new automobile with only 50 miles on its speedometer. The new car was virtually demolished.

They were first stopped by Daly City police officer John Coleman at approximately 3 a.m. Thursday, May 22. Coleman was suspicious because of their age—both are 15 years old—and the lateness of the hour.

While he was checking them, the driver suddenly put his car in gear and pulled away. Coleman gave chase, following the pair through South San Francisco in a wild chase that doubled back into Daly City.

Rocketing down Hillside boulevard, the chase was spotted by Officer Les Bastedo, who joined in to aid Coleman. In San Francisco, nine patrol cars and a motorcycle were added to the parade.

At no time throughout the 20-minute chase, said officers, did their speedometers register less than 75 miles an hour. Many times the runaway pair speeded up to 80 and 90.

On Van Ness avenue in San Francisco, the wild ride came to close. At Van Ness and Mission, the speeding car sideswiped a bakery truck, and at California and Van Ness, crashed into the new car, ruining it.

After the double accident, the car continued on a few blocks; finally being brought to a halt at Van Ness and Pine.

The teen-age driver later told police that he didn't know how fast he was going, but "held it to the floor boards" all the time.

One of the boys had been picked up for car theft two years ago, police report.

Lions Will Take Grammar School Traffic Boys To Seals' Ball Game

For the fourth straight year, the Daly City-Colma Lions club will treat traffic boys from three local schools to a night at the ball game.

Tonight, Thursday, 62 of the youngsters from Our Lady of Perpetual Help school, Westlake school and Jefferson grammar school will receive an all-expense trip to the Seals vs. Los Angeles ball game at Seals stadium.

Third base box seats have been reserved for the youths, popcorn money supplied, and transportation to and from the game insured. Seventeen Lions will pick up the boys at their individual homes, chaperone them at the game, and return them to their doorstep.

Highlight for the small fry will be when they are escorted to each team's dugout for a close-up view of the players and a chance to get their sports heroes autographs.

Speaker this coming Wednesday before the Lions club will be Robert Boehm-Myro, of the Boehm-Myro and associates firm of consulting and industrial design engineers.

Yesterday, Wednesday, the Lions club heard a talk by Jim Fox, director in charge of recreation and fishing facilities at Lake Merced. He spoke on plans for a future Lions club-sponsored fishing day at the lake.

The local Lions hold their luncheon-meetings at the Colonial restaurant on Junipero Serra boulevard.

Plans were also completed at the meeting for the Lions annual track meet for seventh and eighth graders, to be held with the cooperation of the Daly City Recreation department at the Jefferson high school track on Sunday, June 8. (See sports page for further information.)

LOOK FOR SPARE FUSE

A check of the fuse set-up of the car will probably disclose that a spare is carried in a pair of clips designed especially for that purpose, according to National Automobile Club. A look at the block attached to the lighting switch immediately behind the instrument panel will probably locate the spares.

Yesterdays, Wednesday, the Lions club heard a talk by Jim Fox, director in charge of recreation and fishing facilities at Lake Merced. He spoke on plans for a future Lions club-sponsored fishing day at the lake.

Dodd Installed As California FOE President

Joseph J. Dodd of Fresno was installed as president of the California State Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, today at the closing session of the 49th annual convocation of the lodge held in San Jose.

Margaret Wetherald of Alameda was installed as president of the Women's Auxiliary of the FOE at conclusion of their convention in San Jose on the same date.

Principal speaker at the final session of the State Aerie session was Attorney General Edmund Brown who urged the Fraternal Order of Eagles and all fraternal organizations to form committees to study crime prevention. Brown said that there has been a steady upsurge of narcotic use among the younger people of California.

He praised the State Legislature for allowing additional agents in his department and said that the finger print department of the state of California has been responsible for curbing sex crimes. He said that the California finger print department is the second largest in the nation, second only to the Department of Justice in Washington, D. C.

He lauded William Hornblower of San Francisco, a past national president of the F. O. E., for his keynote speech at the Eagle convention last Thursday. Hornblower warned against the abuse of law enforcement agencies who badge witnesses to testify by compulsion.

Brown said that some enforcement officers are too anxious to condemn persons before all the facts are presented. He praised Hornblower for his courage in defending the constitutional rights of citizens.

Tuesday evening Broadmoor policeman Don Tannehill received a report that a truck was involved in a crash on Edgemoor road, just above Sullivan street.

The truck had left the road, run into a field about 100 feet and crashed into a tree. Tannehill checked the truck, but couldn't find a driver.

From the Daly City police he got the information the truck had been reported stolen. The truck had been taken from 6024 Mission street and belonged to Lynn V. Cinti, owner of the Commercial Tile Company.

Daly City police are still investigating.

Distribute Sportsmen's Code To Merced Anglers

A code of conduct for sportsmen angling at San Francisco's Lake Merced has been distributed by District Council No. 7 of the Associated Sportsmen of California and might well be applied to fishermen everywhere, advises the Department of Fish and Game.

Jimmy Fox, chairman of the Council's Lake Merced committee heads the group of volunteers who have provided 50 complete angling outfits for free use of children at the lake. His committee has put out the following code, which distributed with each $1 permit:

Please keep trash and litter off the banks and beaches. Use trash cans. These are your water. Keep them clean.
